

Lazy ©2009 Tim Moyer

I hope that don't take too long tonight
To get to where I got to be Cuz I don't have that much to give anymore
Here's all that's left of me

So I'll take the easy road
I won't do what I am told

'Cuz I'm lazy
I'm just lazy
yeah I'm just lazy
You can't make me be someone like you

I've gone and left it thrown all over the floor and I refuse to pick it up
What you see has always been there before Just too polite to interrupt you when you're talking through your ass
You can kick me from your class

'Cuz I'm lazy
I'm just lazy
yeah I'm just lazy
You can't make me be someone like you

I tried to straighten up my act
That's when I found my soul'd been jacked
Before the whole of me was gone I grabbed a little bit of me and held on

I'm here to tell you that I mean well
It's just the nature of me
It's not a negative as far as I can tell
The Doctors say that I'm just an anomaly
And I will be OK
If you let me sleep all day

'Cuz I'm lazy
